
A Brief History of Research

Here are just some of the topics studied using large establishment time-series data. What's in your topic?

1. Understanding the Barriers to Growth in Second-Stage Firms - Yale University
2. The Role of Sustained Firm Growth in Regional Income Convergence - UNC Charlotte
3. Private Equity Funds: Buying Productivity, Creating it, or Both? - Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU)
4. The Effects of State Innovation Programs on Location Decisions of New Science and Technology Companies -University of Michigan
5. Acquisition as an Entrepreneurial Exit Strategy: Role of Signaling Based on Internal & External Sources of Organizational Legitimacy - University of New Hampshire
6. The Importance of Unlisted Firms in the U.S. Economy - Harvard University
7. A Virtuous Growth Cycle: The Impact of Employee Benefits on Firm-level Sustained Growth - BDRC Research
8. Private Equity for Middle-Market Firms: Investment, Performance and Exit - UCLA
9. The Effects of Private Equity and Venture Capital on Sales and Employment Growth in Small and Medium-sized Businesses - Pepperdine University
10. The Timing of Initial External Financing for Entrepreneurial Ventures: A Bayesian Perspective - University of New Hampshire
11. Move to Get Money? How High Tech Entrepreneurs Overcome Financial Resource Dependencies Through Relocation - Ghent University
12. Metropolitan Innovation, Firm Size, and Business Survival in a High-Tech Industry - University of North Carolina at Charlotte and George Mason University
13. How ventures voluntarily seeking a credit rating affect financing options - Ghent University
14. Research and Application of NETS in Regional Economies - Purdue University
15. Defining and Identifying Core-based Economies in Regions - Center for Technology Commercialization at the University of Wisconsin Extension Division of Entrepreneurship and Economic Development
16. The Impact of Science Parks on the Survival and Success of High-tech Ventures - University of New Hampshire
17. Defining and Identify Cooperatives in the U.S. - UW Center for Cooperatives at the University of Wisconsin

Other Research Available

Check out the latest research : <http://exceptionalgrowth.org/insights.iegc>